

Native American / First Nations Tribe Specific Things You Can Do To Help TMP Right Now

Please support the Ticci Man Project and show Native American unity, support, and leadership:

1. Send us a formal non-compensated, signed letterhead endorsing the Ticci Man Project so we can place your tribe on our high profile website to show Native American solidarity as well as show Hollywood this is truly an important project that demands their support.
2. Send us a big donation to help us get everything formalized and moving forward:

Donation (Not tax deductible)

- a. Make check payable to: Ticci Man Project. (Mail TMP c/o of Imajilan, PO Box 91437, San Diego, CA 92169)

This will not be a tax deductible donation. It will be used to get the nonprofit entity, Kon Ticci, officially set-up so we can obtain our 501 (c) (3) IRS approval, which allows for tax deductible donations, etc. and for uses deemed appropriate for the project by management. (Donors will be notified once we receive our IRS approval status so they can write off their donations—we estimate about 6-7 months but make no promises we will achieve this status this tax year). We need to raise as much money as possible for all our nonprofit aspects.

3. If you prefer to donate or contribute other things to TMP also, such as loan out your attorney, press agent, have your manger make some phone calls on our behalf, put together a volunteer web marketing or phone bank group, or something else you think we could use, etc. please let us know because all contributions are wonderful. This is a massive project and it needs a massive amount of assistance.
4. Spread the word and recruit at least two tribes and two important leaders in the NA community to lend their support to TMP. It's important we make a strong showing of NA community support and demonstrate to the world that NAs are both a great people and a force to be respected and assisted—we must show are willingness to help so that others will follow suit.
5. Have fun. This is a very exciting project so get everyone enthused and having fun!

Our Greatest Thanks And Appreciation!
